1. This International Searching Authority (i) considers that there are 3 (number of) inventions claimed in the international application covered by the claims indicated on an extra sheet: (ii) therefore considers that the international application does not comply with the requirements of unity of invention (Rules 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3) for the reasons indicated on an extra sheet: (iii) <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> has carried out a partial international search (see Annex) <input type="checkbox"/> will establish the international search report on those parts of the international application which relate to the invention first mentioned in claims Nos.: see extra sheet (iv) will establish the international search report on the other parts of the international application only if, and to the extent to which, additional fees are paid. 2. This International Searching Authority found multiple (groups of) inventions in this international application, as follows:

1. claims: 1-29

An apparatus for treating urinary incontinence comprising an extension and conversion mechanism

2. claims: 37, 38

An apparatus for treating urinary incontinence compressing legs and arms not axially aligned

3. claims: 39-41

An apparatus for treating urinary incontinence comprising legs and arms adapted to be connected

This Authority considers that there are 3 inventions covered by the claims indicated as follows:

- I: Claims 1-29 directed to an apparatus for treating urinary incontinence comprising an extension and conversion mechanism
II: Claims 37, 38 directed to an apparatus for treating urinary incontinence compressing legs and arms not axially aligned
III: Claims 39-41 directed to an apparatus for treating urinary incontinence comprising legs and arms adapted to be connected

The reasons for which the inventions are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept, as required by Rule 13.1 PCT, are as follows:

The common features linking together the above groups of claims are: an anchor section comprising a anchor legs, and a support section comprising support arms.

The prior art has been identified as document WO-A-2006/097935 and discloses all these features. Therefore the common features linking together the above groups of claims are not novel. Moreover, there is no common inventive concept linking together the above groups of claims. Claim 1 provides device that can be easily extended and compressed. Claim 37 provides a device that fits better into the body and claim 39 provides a device whereby the arms and legs can be connected.

In conclusion, the groups of claims are not linked by common or corresponding special technical features and define 3 different inventions not linked by a single general inventive concept.

The application, hence does not meet the requirements of unity of invention as defined in Rules 13.1 and 13.2 PCT.
